

TABLES OF CONTENTS

TABLE OF CASES.....	pag.	XI
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	pag.	XV

CHAPTER 1

BANKS AND BANKING: HISTORIC AND ESSENTIAL CONCEPTS

	pag.	1
1. Introduction: Banks as financial institutions and financial intermediaries	»	1
2. The role of banks in the economy.....	»	6
3. Banking as a publicly regulated activity: An overview	»	10
3.1. Legislative acts, non-legislative acts, and regulators	»	14
3.2. Forms of regulation	»	15
3.3. Goals of banking regulation	»	17
4. Banking as a supervised activity.....	»	19
5. The history of banks.....	»	23
6. Banks, banking, and financial services.....	»	25
7. Types of banks: Commercial banks, investment banks, and universal banks.....	»	27
8. Banks as business entities: Joint-stock companies and cooperative companies. Bank organization: Branches, subsidiaries, and groups of banks.....	»	32
9. Banking, bank-like activities, and shadow banking...	»	35
10. FinTech: Opportunities and risks.....	»	39
11. Bibliography	»	42

CHAPTER 2

EUROPEAN UNION BANKING LAW: SOURCES AND DEVELOPMENTS

pag. 45

1.	The European Union banking law and its sources: An overview	»	45
1.1.	The European financial services legislation and the Lamfalussy approach	»	51
1.2.	In particular: Post-crisis reform and the European supervisory authorities	»	53
2.	The European banking legislation, the Single Rulebook, and the role played by the European Banking Authority	»	56
2.1.	Cont'd: The non-binding acts issued by the European Banking Authority	»	62
3.	Regulatory powers and the European Central Bank ..	»	63
4.	Non-binding rules and soft banking law	»	68
5.	European banking law through its major legislative developments	»	70
6.	In particular: The parts of legislation called to establish a single market for banking services. The "First Banking Directive"	»	77
6.1.	Cont'd: The "Second Banking Directive" and the "Single Banking License"	»	83
7.	Bibliography	»	86

CHAPTER 3

"CREDIT INSTITUTIONS" UNDER EUROPEAN
BANKING LAW: DEFINITION, PERIMETER
AND ACCESS TO THEIR ACTIVITY pag. 89

1.	The regulation of banks after the 2008 financial crisis: Basel III, the Capital Requirements Directive IV, the Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive, and the paradigm of "credit institutions"	»	89
2.	The legal definition of "credit institution" and its principal components	»	93
2.1.	"Deposits" and other "repayable funds"	»	94
2.2.	"... from the public"	»	99
2.3.	The granting of credit	»	100
2.4.	The connection between the collection of deposits and other repayable funds and the granting of credit	»	102
3.	Investment firms	»	103
4.	The "financial sector" entities other than "institutions"	»	106

5. The requirements to carry out the activity of credit institution	»	107
6. Freedom of establishment and to provide services: An overview	»	115
6.1. Powers of the competent authorities of the host Member State	»	118
6.2. Freedom to provide services	»	122
7. Bibliography	»	122

CHAPTER 4

PRUDENTIAL REQUIREMENTS AND SUPERVISION OF CREDIT INSTITUTIONS pag. 125

1. Regulation and supervision on bank's capital adequacy: An overview	»	125
2. EU legislative acts on capital adequacy within the Basel Accords framework. Basel I	»	127
2.1. Cont'd: Basel II	»	129
2.2. Basel III	»	133
3. The CRD IV Package: Capital requirements, liquidity rules, and leverage ratio	»	134
3.1. Cont'd: The risk management of institutions: An overview	»	140
3.3.1. In particular: Governance arrangements and the role of the management body	»	142
3.2. Remuneration policies	»	146
4. "Prudential supervision" in the European Union: An overview	»	147
5. The supervision under the CRD IV Package	»	151
5.1. "National competent authorities"	»	152
5.2. Powers of competent authorities: An overview	»	154
5.2.1. Review processes and supervisory measures	»	156
5.2.2. Sanctioning powers	»	158
6. The supervision within the European System of Financial Supervision: An overview	»	163
6.1. Components of the EFSF: The European Systemic Risk Board	»	165
6.1.1. Cont'd: European Supervisory Authorities and the EBA, in particular	»	167
7. Introduction: The supervision of credit institutions within the Banking Union	»	169

7.1.	The “Single Supervisory Mechanism”.....	»	171
7.2.	The distribution of supervisory tasks between the ECB and national competent authorities ...	»	175
7.2.1.	In particular: The “significance” of an institution.....	»	176
7.3.	ECB's supervisory tasks to all institutions.....	»	179
7.4.	Powers of the ECB.....	»	181
7.4.1.	In particular: ECB's sanctioning powers.....	»	186
7.5.	The SSM organizational structure and its decision-making process.....	»	188
8.	Bibliography.....	»	192

CHAPTER 5

THE RESOLUTION OF CREDIT INSTITUTIONS

		pag.	195
1.	Banks' crisis management in the EU: An overview ..	»	195
2.	The Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive: Scope, resolution authorities, and competent ministries..	»	201
3.	The three phases of banks' crises management: a) “Preparation”.....	»	204
4.	Cont'd: b) “Early intervention”.....	»	207
5.	Cont'd: c) “Resolution” and conditions for taking resolution actions.....	»	210
5.1.	Cont'd: FOLTF institutions and precautionary public support.....	»	214
6.	Resolution tools.....	»	216
6.1.	The bail-in tool and the power to write-down and convert capital instruments.....	»	223
6.2.	Resolution tools and fundamental rights.....	»	229
7.	Resolution financing arrangements: a) National Financing Arrangement.....	»	232
7.1.	b) Government financial stabilization tools and Union State aid framework.....	»	235
7.2.	c) The European Stability Mechanism.....	»	238
8.	The resolution of institutions within the Banking Union and the Single Resolution Mechanism: An overview.....	»	240
8.1.	The Single Resolution Board and NRAs.....	»	242
8.2.	The Single Resolution Fund.....	»	246
9.	Bibliography.....	»	246

CHAPTER 6

THE DEPOSITS' PROTECTION	pag.	249
1. Deposit Guarantee Schemes: An overview.....	»	249
2. Eligible deposits, the coverage level, the repayable amount, repayment.....	»	254
3. Completing the Banking Union: The European Deposit Insurance Scheme	»	258
4. Bibliography	»	261
INDEX.....	»	263